PRESIDENT REPORT

Many of us see the darker days, with more gray skies than blue, as less of an opportunity to embrace life and go on adventures. I am not one of those people, falling leaves and rain has almost the opposite effect on me. Maybe it's because I am a winter baby (born in June, yes I am a Gemini too), or maybe it's because I love rainy days where I get to use one of my many rainbow umbrellas or drink a hot coffee and enjoy it because well it is cold, no sweltering hot outside. Or that there are more reasons to eat delicious food in wonderful new places and go off on adventures with friends - because there are no festivals taking up my weekends! I know that we all have good and bad days on the life roller coaster, but I try to see the good in everyday even if it begins to rain on my way to work or if I do have a cold (another downside of the season!). Either way try to remember that behind every grey cloud there might be a rainbow and use that as a metaphor for your day.

Coming up this month are quite a few events in and around Shepparton, it is important for us to try to reach all corners of our member base and I do like to try new places recommended by others from the GV Pride family. Join us this Saturday, we are off to Moama for brunch at Three Black Sheep. Whilst in Echuca/Moama don't forget to check out the beautiful Port of Echuca, there are many historical sights to see and shops to spend your hard earned cash if that is more your thing! Next week marks our second Dinner and Drinks Night at the Deck! They have a fabulous $8.50 pizza and pot special, this is seriously cheap! From 6.30pm onwards come and join us for dinner, a drink, or just a little socialising or a lot depending on your preference of course. Everyone is welcome so please bring along your friends, work colleagues or the family for a wonderful evening of laughs and some dancing if you feel up to it! A large group of us (that I am calling theatre enthusiasts) are heading to the land of Oz on Friday the 13th to see Wicked at the National Theatre in St Kilda. The CLOC Musical Theatre Company will be entertaining us with this 'visually stunning and gravity defying' production which promises to thrill and excite all. There is also a dinner at Thai Orchid on May 20th to look forward to, another opportunity to get out and warm up with a little curry or a lot (I'm a mild only girl but I have known someone who ate the Jungle Curry and didn't appear to break a sweat!) and as we look ahead just a smidge more you might have noticed a brunch at everyone's favourite spot, the Lemon Tree on the 5th of June. So make sure you've got all of those dates down in your diary (or phone calendar as some of us use these days - I'm so not tech savvy!) so you don't miss any opportunity to make new friends or laugh with old ones.

This month we celebrate International day against HOMophobia, Biphobia and Transphobia, known as IDAHOBIT Day. May 17th, 1990 was the day that the World Health Organisation took Homosexuality off the mental health list and it is because of that, that we celebrate all the wonder that we are, embracing all the best parts of us and being proud of our individual selves! In previous years we have raised the rainbow flag in the middle of the mall and wrote messages of love and hope on our 'pink wall' to those who have won their battles and for those who are still fighting. This year we are celebrating the day with a movie Fundraiser, screening the film Pride at the Harder Auditorium at GOTAFE on Fryers Street in Shepparton. Please come along and celebrate this momentous occasion with us.

What else is on the cards for GV Pride this year you ask? Well ... Did somebody say Birthday? GV Pride has a birthday coming up? Oh that's right we sure do! Locked in for Friday night July 1st so don't go making any other plans as we want to see you there with your festive pants on! More details to come in the next few weeks but don't forget to lock that one in now so you don't miss out on being a part of the festivities. We have also teamed up with Rotary to participate in this years' Relay For Life. The event happens in October and you can join our team 'Proud Rotarians' as we relay together overnight. The event is not only a fundraiser but a wonderful opportunity to remember loved ones who have passed and celebrate the survivors who are a part of our community. There is of course one last weekend that needs almost no reminding whatsoever, goes by the nickname of OitO, got any idea what I am talking about? OUTintheOPEN of course, on once again, the First weekend in November. Goulburn Valley Pride are proud to have taken ownership of this Festival and are proud to bring it to you in its fifth year. Please keep an eye out as we call for volunteers if that is something you would like to be a part of. We would love to have your help as this is a community event and we value your enthusiasm and involvement to take this wonderful Festival into its fifth year.

I hope that I leave you excited about what is to come, packed with dates to come and say hello and embrace the cold with me. Until then, stay warm! Georgie

Brilliantly crafted moments of perfect comedy will leave your ribs aching.

A BLUE COW THEATRE production

Toured by Tasmania Performs

Multi-award-winning playwright Finegan Kruckemeyer was invited by Tasmania's popular Blue Cow Theatre to write a play especially for four gifted comedic performers. A great spinner of fantastical tales, Fin dreamed up Simon's Final Sound – a play about a man who has little, and is about to have a whole lot less.

Simon's a bit of a no-hoper, and he is going deaf. He goes in search of a magical – but possibly mythical – island where, he thinks, he will find some consolation. To make the journey, Simon teams up with Michael, a dull banker with a duller life, and Michael's wife, Ginny, who is about to leave him. Also along for the ride is Claude, a blisteringly annoying blockhead with zero social skills.

Filling these four larger-than-life characters are four comic actors whose experience ranges from The Lion King to Circus Oz, and who've displayed those talents around the country and the world.

Launching from a jetty of loss and melancholy, Simon's Final Sound takes the audience on a colourful South Seas voyage with plenty of hula skirts, high-jinx and belly laughs, and makes land on an island of insight and compassion.

Audience Advice: Strong language and adult themes. Not recommended for young people under the age of 15.

WICKED, the megahit musical, has been playing on Broadway since 2003, and recently completed a seven year continuous run throughout Australasia.

And now, CLOC Musical Theatre is thrilled to present the Australian non-professional premiere production of this visually stunning and gravity-defying production.
